

Purchase the entire collection of
The Canadian Entomologist and Memoirs of the ESC
as web archives

This is a unique chance to complete your collection of The Canadian Entomologist and the Memoirs of the Entomological Society of Canada. The Canadian Entomologist has been in continuous publication since 1868, the Memoirs of the ESC from 1955-1997. Yet many institutions have only partial collections of these classic entomological publications. This online archive will give readers access to a vast collection of significant entomological knowledge, subject to stringent peer-review, dating back to the beginning of scientific work in Canada and USA. Many key taxonomic and landmark ecology papers are available in these publications.

Our readers have been asking for electronic access to the thousands of articles published in these two publications. This online archive will have the complete collection of The Canadian Entomologist from 1868 until 2002, and the complete set of Memoirs of the ESC. Many of these volumes are now out of print and no longer can be purchased. The Canadian Entomologist from 2003 is available to electronic subscribers.

If you ordered the entire print back issues of these publications, it would cost over $12,000. Act now and purchase both online archives for $3200!

Web access is designed and maintained by NRC Research Press, the Government of Canada's scientific publication agency.
